Author/Contributor Guide

Articles submitted to the Development Review are assessed anonymously by two or more outside reviewers. It normally takes from three to four months for an initial decision regarding publication. The journal is not responsible for the opinions expressed in the articles. Articles are not usually accepted for publication until after revisions are complete and reviewed. Once an article has been accepted for publication, it cannot be withdrawn without the Editor's approval.

- Issues of the papers submitted can be historical, philosophical, administrative, and comparative and they should deal with a wide range of areas related to development planning, governance, management and policy.
- Articles should be only in English. Articles submitted for consideration are not returnable to the author.
- Articles should not exceed 7000 words including references/footnotes/endnotes.
- An abstract of not more than 100 words should be included.
- Articles should be double-spaced and the references should be in APA style.
- Submission of articles should be in triplicate with margin in four sides of the A4 size paper and soft copy should be sent at ziaurcu97@gmail.com;
- Identity of the authors should not appear in the main body of the article.
- While submitting an article, the author must declare that it has not been sent to any other journal for publication. Articles previously published or in being submitted elsewhere will not be considered. Once printed, the publisher (NAPD) will have copy right to the paper. However, for academic purposes, references could be made without prior permission.
- Authors are entitled to a free copy of the journal.
- Manuscripts and editorial correspondence should be addressed to the Editor, Development Review, National Academy for Planning and Development, 3/A, Nilkhet, Dhaka – 1205, Bangladesh. Email: ziaurcu97@gmail.com;
